So many conflicting statements have been put into circulation through the Shanghai papers about Sir Robert HART and the Inspectorate-General of Chinese Imperial Maritime Customs that the public must be in a state of bewilderment as to what to expeet next. We are glad to be able to set at rest all speculation on the question, though there is not much cause for congratulation in any other sense on the result. Briefly, then, His Excellency the Covernor received efficial information yesterday that MOBERT HART has finally declined to take up the post of British Minister to China and will remain Inspector-General of Customs.

AT THE THEATRE ROYAL. On Tuesday night the Emilie Melville Opera Company gave their third performance at the City Hall Theatre. The night was close and the weather unpromising, and those circumstances, combined with the fact that "The Pirates of Penzance" has become tolerably familiar to the theatre-going public here, sufficiently account for the moderate attendance as compared with the full houses of previous nights.

Of the hatching of striking out the date 1885 and substituting plots, counterplots, schemes, ways of evasion, and intrigue there has been no end, and as regards the appointment of the Chinese head, the struggle for power and pre-eminence has been fierce. The post of Chinese headship is important. In Chinese hands it will be potential for the attainment of luge gains; political power will be attached, and of patronage great heaps, so that the fight is strenuous. A few weeks ago some one with a Rabelaisian pseudonym gave your readers warning about certain bogus concessions granting rights to work sham mines. These documents, which are invalid and worthloss, have genuine official seals, but the stamps were obtained by fraud, and course the documents are null and void Possibly some genuine concession, in favour Chinese grantees, may be in existence, and it might be that means-more or less satisfactory and adequate-might be found to turn such genuine grants to account. POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

Attention is invited to the following particulars on the subject of Local Delivery :-LOCAL DELIVERY .- No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdson, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be affected (Postal Guide, par. 159). The above Regulation is not new, but has been the invariable rule of the Post Office for many years. Considerable efforts have been made to secure its being generally understood. To prevent, however, if possible, any further disappointment in the matter, it will appear permanently on the Mail Lists issued twice every day from the Daily Press Office.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to --- or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it. without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end
